

ADULT EDUCATION IN THE HEALTH AND MEDICAL PROFESSIONS GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

One 3-credit graduate elective related to the candidate's particular interest related to health or medical education, and could include other graduate courses in the Adult Education Program or another related area 3

Total Credits 12

Courses

Graduate courses carry numbers from 500 to 699 and 800 to 899. Advanced undergraduate courses numbered between 400 and 499 may be used to meet some graduate degree requirements when taken by graduate students. Courses below the 400 level may not. A graduate student may register for or audit these courses in order to make up deficiencies or to fill in gaps in previous education but not to meet requirements for an advanced degree.

Learning Outcomes

- 1. Know: Graduates will demonstrate in-depth understanding of foundational knowledge of medical education and adult education. A demonstration will include the analysis and application of key educational constructs across a variety of formal, nonformal and informal health and medical settings.
- 2. Apply: Graduates will be able to design creative curriculum, courses, and workshops and teach innovative ways for engaging adult learners in health and medical settings.
- 3. Critical Thinking: Graduates will develop a critically reflective practice, whereby they regularly engage in reflection about their underlying assumptions and beliefs concerning the purpose of education, the role of educator, the role of the learner, context, and diversity and equity in the education of adults
- 4. Communicate: Graduates will be able to convey ideas or arguments in clear, concise, well-organized written papers and oral presentations.
