

APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Learning Outcomes

1. BEH PRINCIPLES: Students will be able to define, apply, and explain behavior principles in response to applied situations.
2. BEH DATA: Students will be able to use evidence-based methods to collect, display, interpret, and communicate behavioral data.
3. BEH ASSESSMENT: Students will be able to select, implement, and explain evidence-based methods of assessment for behavioral program implementation.
4. BEH CHANGE: Students will be able to select, implement, and explain evidence-based interventions to affect socially significant behavior change for clients.
5. ETHICAL PRACTICE: Students will be able to explain, communicate, and engage in professional practice using current ethical guidelines in behavior analysis.