AFRICAN STUDIES

Learning Outcomes

- 1. Graduates will demonstrate command of historical and current socioeconomic developments of Africa.
- 2. Graduates will demonstrate command of applying social science and humanities methodologies in the advancement of knowledge about Africa's broad socioeconomic developments.
- 3. Graduates will demonstrate the ability to effectively communicate major issues in the study of Africa.
- 4. Graduates will have command of critical thinking and interdisciplinary analysis of developments in Africa.
- Graduates will master the highest ethical standards required in conducting research and in applying their discipline.