

AGRIBUSINESS MANAGEMENT, B.S.

Begin Campus: Any Penn State Campus

End Campus: University Park, World Campus

Program Learning Objectives

- Communication: Students will be able to explain solutions to agribusiness management problems through persuasive oral and written communication.
- Critical and Integrative Thinking: Students will be able to think critically and utilize an integrated approach to analyze and solve agribusiness management problems.
- Data Analysis: Students will be able to analyze and solve agribusiness management problems using quantitative and qualitative measures.
- Dealing with Ambiguity: Students will be able to solve agribusiness management problems involving risk, uncertainty, and ambiguity.
- Foundational and Functional Knowledge: Students will be able to apply foundational and functional knowledge to recognize, analyze, and solve agribusiness management problems.
- Teamwork: Students will be able to work effectively to solve agribusiness management problems as individuals and as members of teams.