

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT, MINOR

Requirements for a minor may be completed at any campus location offering the specified courses for the minor. Students may not change from a campus that offers their major to a campus that does not offer their major for the purpose of completing a minor.

Program Description

This minor is designed for students in any major of the University wanting to supplement their program with studies in leadership development. The minor consists of 18 credits, at least 3 of which are an internship experience. Up to 9 additional credits may be required depending on the student's selection of courses under "Additional Courses". This minor provides students with a fundamental concept of leadership development and expands in three related dimensions.

What is Leadership Development?

The goal of the Leadership Development minor is to expand students' knowledge, skills, and understanding of specific leadership theories, concepts, models, and current leadership issues in applied settings. It is intended for students interested in a cross-disciplinary approach to gathering, interpreting, and applying knowledge about leaders and leadership practices. This minor teaches students the skills necessary to excel as leaders in their professions and help others accomplish their goals.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT (<https://agsci.psu.edu/academics/undergraduate/minors/leadership-development/>)

You Might Like This Program If...

- You want to learn a variety of skills that allow you to lead teams, groups, and organizations.
- You are interested in how effective leadership skills and techniques can advance you and your organization.
- You seek to make change happen in your community and beyond.
- You want to pursue a career in your major and to gain the leadership skills that will allow you to advance in your career.