ARTS AND ARCHITECTURE

Departments and Schools

Department of Art History

The Department of Art History offers lecture/discussion courses and seminars on a broad range of topics, from ancient to contemporary art and architecture in Europe, the Americas, Asia, Africa, and Oceania. Courses are also offered in museum studies, historiography, iconology, criticism, connoisseurship, and research methods. The department maintains a close relationship with the Palmer Museum of Art through courses in museum studies, assistantships, and other hands-on experiences for students.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF ART HISTORY (https://arts.psu.edu/academics/department-of-art-history/)

Integrative Arts

The Integrative Arts program is a multidisciplinary, student-designed degree program. Students who major in Integrative Arts focus their programs of study on personal interests in the arts and design, and they have the opportunity to build their course of study both within and across the boundaries of existing majors in the College of Arts and Architecture.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE INTEGRATIVE ARTS PROGRAM (https://arts.psu.edu/degrees/bachelor-of-arts-in-integrative-arts/)

School of Music

With approximately 325 students enrolled, the School of Music offers degrees that help develop students as performers, teachers, and scholars. The school hosts more than 400 public events each year, providing students with ample opportunities to perform, from small chamber groups to large ensembles (including the Penn State Marching Blue Band!).

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC (https://arts.psu.edu/academics/school-of-music/)

H. Campbell and Eleanor R. Stuckeman School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture

The Stuckeman School is home to the departments of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, and the Graphic Design program.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE H. CAMPBELL AND ELEANOR R. STUCKEMAN SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE AND LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE (https://arts.psu.edu/academics/stuckeman-school/)

Department of Architecture

The architecture department offers focused opportunities for inquiry, research, and study in key areas of culture, space, and society; design computing; material matters; and sustainability.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF ARCHITECTURE (https://arts.psu.edu/academics/department-of-architecture/)

Department of Landscape Architecture

The landscape architecture program is consistently ranked among the best in the country. The department is guided by its bold mission: Great work grounded in commitment to environmental and social good.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE (https://arts.psu.edu/academics/department-of-landscape-architecture/)

Graphic Design

The graphic design program offers a close-knit community and individualized through small class sizes. Graduates of the graphic design program hold leadership positions in design studios, advertising agencies, and corporate in-house design offices throughout the United States and abroad.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE GRAPHIC DESIGN PROGRAM (https://arts.psu.edu/academics/department-of-graphic-design/)

School of Theatre

The School of Theatre offers undergraduate degrees in acting, musical theatre, dance, design and technology, stage management, and theatre studies, and graduate degrees in acting, design and technology, directing and music directing, and voice pedagogy. Students study, perform, and produce classics, musicals, and new and devised theatre works, while developing skills that will help them sustain full lives and careers in theatre.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF THEATRE (https://arts.psu.edu/academics/school-of-theatre/)

School of Visual Arts

The School of Visual Arts (SoVA) offers degree programs in three areas of study: studio art, art education, and digital arts and design. SoVA's visual arts and design programs offer students opportunities to respond imaginatively to social and cultural change through exploration, expression, and communication in visual art and design forms.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF VISUAL ARTS (https://arts.psu.edu/academics/school-of-visual-arts/)