

REHABILITATION AND HUMAN SERVICES, B.S. (EDUCATION)

Begin Campus: Any Penn State Campus

End Campus: University Park

Program Learning Objectives

- Students will demonstrate how to advocate for clients and their family members using an anti-oppression, anti-racism lens with an emphasis on inclusion and appreciation for diversity. Students will understand how systemic racism and other forms of systemic oppression impact some people more than others, so that more targeted advocacy will result.
- Students will demonstrate how to assess client needs.
- Students will demonstrate how to develop treatment plans.
- Students will demonstrate how to identify and use community resources.
- Students will demonstrate how to develop treatment plans.