Opportunities for Graduate Studies

Students who minor in Anthropology will find that their undergraduate education is excellent preparation for the advanced training required for many professions. The minor track can supplement study in a range of other fields and prepare students for specialized graduate study in medicine, law, journalism, public administration, and virtually all of the "human services" fields. Most professional schools and graduate programs seek well-rounded, broadly educated applicants who can understand the implications of the advanced, specialized training they will receive in post-graduate training.
