DEGREE AUDIT

A degree audit is an analysis that enables the student and their adviser to assess the student's academic progress and unfulfilled baccalaureate, associate degree, or minor requirements. The audit is a valuable tool for academic planning and course selection because it matches the courses that the student has taken with the requirements of their degree program or anticipated program.